DESCRIPTION:

Château de Bligny, was built by the Marquis de Dampierre in the heart of the Côte des Bars. The château and its land have a great historic, architectural and wine-making heritage. Château de Bligny is a unique champagne property. It is the only champagne to enjoy a "Château" appellation as a champagne harvester and maker.

TASTING NOTES:

"An aromatic version, with smoke, candied plum, marzipan and pastry dough notes, offering a soft and creamy mousse and flavours of baked apple, honey, roasted walnut and lemon curd." Alison Napjus ~ August 31st, 2014
