DESCRIPTION:

Located at the foot of the Sainte-Victoire Mountain, this estate was once the general headquarters of the Roman legion under Marius, who led his army against the Cimbri and Teutoni tribes around 100BC. After the fall of the Roman Empire around 800AD, the vineyard was cultivated by the monks of the Sainte Victoire Abbey of Marseille, who served as winemakers throughout the Middle Ages.

TASTING NOTES:

DECANTER WORLD WINE AWARDS SILVER MEDAL 2014 Located at the foot of the magnificent Montagne Sainte-Victoire, which inspired artists like Cézanne, this historic winery has produced a classic Provencal rosé: feather-light and elegant, with fresh strawberry and cherry blossom notes. A floral nose with a subtle touch of peach.
