DESCRIPTION:

The Phoenicians brought Aglianico to Italy from Greece and mainly from Eubea, many centuries before Christ was born. This "Ancient Vine" produced Pope Paul III's favorite wine. The wine has a ruby red colour with a slight hint of orange, a winy bouquet, ample and intense with hints of ripe fruit. Mellow and velvety, it is very harmonic, full-bodied and with just the right tannic content and hints of almonds. Ideal with savory foods, starters, game and cheese.

TASTING NOTES:

"The 2009 Aglianico del Molise Contado impresses for its density, balance and depth. Hints of smoke and tar add complexity to the rich, powerful fruit." Antonio Galloni ~ May1st , 2011
