DESCRIPTION:

Founded in 1986, Feudi di San Gregorio is today the symbolic mark of the enological renaissance of southern Italy and of a culture of drinking; a time of rediscovering the identity of Mediterranean flavours. A grape of great tradition, Aglianico is the most noble and important Vine of the south, representing a unifying matrix of the great southern reds and is ranked among the finest red Italian grapes. Feudi di San Gregorio is committed for years - with the technical consultation of the Universities of Napoli and Milan - in a project of recognition of the merit and rediscovery of this extraordinary grape

TASTING NOTES:

"The 2010 Aglianico Rubrato is a bit more restrained and structured than the Lacryma Christi Rosso, but just as compelling. Dark red cherries, mint licorice, spices and scorched earth meld together in the glass. This is another intense and pedigreed red from Feudi."
Antonio Galloni ~ February 27th, 2013
