DESCRIPTION:

Founded in 1986, Feudi di San Gregorio is today the symbolic mark of the enological renaissance of southern Italy and of a culture of drinking; a time of rediscovering the identity of Mediterranean flavours. A grape of great tradition, Aglianico is the most noble and important Vine of the south, representing a unifying matrix of the great southern reds and is ranked among the finest red Italian grapes. Feudi di San Gregorio is committed for years - with the technical consultation of the Universities of Napoli and Milan - in a project of recognition of the merit and rediscovery of this extraordinary grape

TASTING NOTES:

'A wine that captures and balances the characteristics of our young estate vines. Ruby red colour with clear violet reflections. The nose expresses its youthfulness and freshness with perfumes of red fruits of cherries and raspberries. The taste reveals a well balanced body and great freshness. A versatile wine ideal to accompany everyday meals.' - Pierpaolo Sirch, Winemaker Feudi di San Gregorio
