DESCRIPTION:

The Harmonium Nero D'Avola was born to honour Sicily and its most important native red grape varietal. Only the most perfect grapes were gathered to make this wine with true care and passion, and what a result – dark, dense ruby color, marvelous hints of red fruits highlighted by prunes and black cherries. The palate is very concentrated, powerful, and warm, with vigorous tannins. It is a work of balance and harmony, and that is why it is called Harmonium.

TASTING NOTES:

“Ripe and amped up, this boasts layered flavours of baking spice, toasty oak and grilled rosemary, which lead to a jammy core of plum skin and kirsch fruit. Medium tannins and tarry minerals accent the long, dark finish.” (N.W. ~ February 29th, 2012)
