BODEGAS VIÑA VILANO is located in the village of Pedrosa de Duero, province of Burgos, internationally regarded as the most privileged wine-growing region within the Designation of Origin of Ribera del Duero, with aged vineyards dating back to its foundation in 1957. Currently, BODEGAS VIÑA VILANO owns over 300 hectares of "Tinta Fina" or "Tinta del País" grapes, a local strain of the world renowned "Tempranillo

TASTING NOTES:

"Aromas of molasses, wood grain, blackberry and cassis are alluring. Bright, bold and energetic across the palate, this Crianza from a warm, dry year offers toasty oak, chocolate, spice, licorice and black-fruit flavours. As it moves towards the finish, toasty, blackened notes along with hints of mocha rise up." Michael Schachner ~ September 1st, 2016
