Founded in 1986, Feudi di San Gregorio is today the symbolic mark of the enological renaissance of southern Italy and of a culture of drinking; a time of rediscovering the identity of Mediterranean flavours. A grape of great tradition, Aglianico is the most noble and important Vine of the south, representing a unifying matrix of the great southern reds and is ranked among the finest red Italian grapes. Feudi di San Gregorio is committed for years – with the technical consultation of the Universities of Napoli and Milan – in a project of recognition of the merit and rediscovery of this extraordinary grape
